	San Francisco Janet Hardy-Gould Oxford Bookworms Library Language Level: A1/A2 ISBN: 978-0-19-479437-4 Pages: 64	Culture USA	It's a good place for gold,' said people in the 1840s, and they came from all over the world. 'It's a good place for a prison,' said the US government in the 1920s, and they put Al Capone there on the island of Alcatraz. 'It's a good place for love,' said the hippies in the 1960s, and they put flowers in their hair and came to Haight Ashbury. And San Francisco is still a good place - to take a hundred photographs, or see the Chinatown parade, or just to sit in a coffee shop and be in this interesting, different city...
	William and Kate Christine Lindop Oxford Bookworms Library Language Level: A1/A2 ISBN: 978-0-19-423668-3 Pages: 64	Society Britain	Everybody took photos of Prince William when he first arrived at the University of St Andrews. Crowds of photographers came to the little Scottish town next to the sea and took pictures of this new student - the nineteen year- old grandson of the Queen of England. But nobody photographed Kate Middleton on her first day at the university. She moved in quietly, ready to begin her studies in art history. She was just an ordinary student with an ordinary future in front of her. Or was she?
	Space Tim Vicary Oxford Bookworms Library Language Level: B1 ISBN: 978-0-19-423673-7 Pages: 80	Science Astronomy	Is there anyone who has not looked at the dark sky, and the shining points of light above us, and asked themselves questions about what is out there? Where did our planet come from? When did the universe begin? Could we live on another planet? And one question above all - is there life anywhere else in space? Begin a journey into space - where spacecraft travel at thousands of kilometres an hour, temperatures are millions of degrees, and a planet may be hard rock - or a ball of gas. In space, everything is extraordinary...

	Dinosaurs Tim Vicary Oxford Bookworms Library Level: Level 3 Language Level: B1 ISBN: 978-0-19-479446-6 Pages: 80	Natural History Science	Imagine an animal with teeth as big as bananas - and a brain as big as an orange. Or a flying animal with wings as wide as a small plane. Think about a tail that could knock a man's head off, or a mouth with hundreds of teeth. Is it any surprise that people are interested in dinosaurs? Nobody has ever seen a living dinosaur, but millions of us go every year to stare at the bones of these enormous animals. In books, films, and games, we can't get enough of the secrets of the dinosaur world...
	The Curious Case of Benjamin Button F. Scott Fitzgerald Retold by Clare West Dominoes Language Level: B1 ISBN: 978-0-19-424927-0 Pages: 88	American classics	How can a boring girl become more popular, a careless young woman become more sensible, or a cut-glass bowl destroy a married woman's life? What does a young man do to save the girl that he likes from an evil ghost, or to forget old feelings for a woman when she marries another man? Read this collection of short stories by one of America's finest storytellers to find out.
	Future Energy Alex Raynham Oxford Bookworms Library Language Level: B1 ISBN: 978-0-19-479449-7 Pages: 80	Science Technology Sustainability	Right now, all over the world, people are using energy. As we drive our cars, work on our computers, or even cook food on a wood fire, we probably do not stop to think about where the energy comes from. But when the gas is gone and there is no more coal - what then? Scientists are finding new answers all the time. Get ready for the children whose running feet make the energy to bring water to their village; for the power station that uses warm and cold water to make energy; for the car that saves energy by growing like a plant...
	Martin Luther King Alan C. McLean Oxford Bookworms Library Level: Level 3 Language Level: B1 ISBN: 978-0-19-423393-4 Pages: 80	History Contemporary Biography	The United States in the 1950s and 60s was a troubled place. Black people were angry, because they did not have the same rights as whites. It was a time of angry words, of marches, of protests, a time of bombs and killings. But above the angry noise came the voice of one man - a man of peace. 'I have a dream,' said Martin Luther King, and it was a dream of blacks and whites living together in peace and freedom. This is the story of an extraordinary man, who changed American history in his short life.

	A Passage to India E. M. Forster Oxford Bookworms Library Language Level: B2/C1 ISBN: 978-0-19-479271-4 Pages: 144	Colonialism Mystery Friendship	A mysterious incident at the Marabar Caves, involving Adela Quested, newly arrived from England, and Dr Aziz, an Indian doctor, leads to a drama that divides the British and Indian communities in anger, distrust, and fear. Forster's great novel brings to life all the dangers and misunderstandings of colonialism but, as Forster himself wrote, the story is about something wider than politics, about the search of the human race for a more lasting home, about the universe as embodied in the Indian earth and the Indian sky, about the horror lurking in the Marabar Caves...
	The Age of Innocence Edith Wharton Retold by Clare West Oxford Bookworms Library Language Level: B2 ISBN: 978-0-19-479216-5 Pages: 112	Society and class Gender Freedom	Into the narrow social world of New York in the 1870s comes Countess Ellen Olenska, surrounded by shocked whispers about her failed marriage to a rich Polish Count. A woman who leaves her husband can never be accepted in polite society. Newland Archer is engaged to young May Welland, but the beautiful and mysterious Countess needs his help. He becomes her friend and defender, but friendship with an unhappy, lonely woman is a dangerous path for a young man to follow - especially a young man who is soon to be married.
	The Dead of Jericho Colin Dexter Retold by Clare West Oxford Bookworms Library Language Level: B2 ISBN: 978-0-19-479220-2 Pages: 128	Crime and mystery	Chief Inspector Morse is drinking a pint of beer. He is thinking about an attractive woman who lives not far away. The woman he is thinking of is hanging, dead, from the ceiling of her kitchen. On the floor lies a chair, almost two metres away from the woman's feet. Chief Inspector Morse finishes his pint, and orders another. Perhaps he will visit Anne, after all. But he is in no particular hurry. Meanwhile, Anne is still hanging in her kitchen, waiting for the police to come and cut her down. She is in no hurry, either.
	A Monster Calls Patrick Ness WALKER BOOKS LTD. ISBN: 9781406361803 Pages: 240	Acceptance Family Grief	Conor has the same dream every night, ever since his mother first fell ill, ever since she started the treatments that don't quite seem to be working. But tonight is different. Tonight, when he wakes, there's a visitor at his window. It's ancient, elemental, a force of nature. And it wants the most dangerous thing of all from Conor. It wants the truth. Patrick Ness takes the final idea of the late, award-winning writer Siobhan Dowd and weaves an extraordinary and heartbreaking tale of mischief, healing and above all, the courage it takes to survive.
